Subject: Opinion Paper

Dear Shawn and Erica:

I have completed the opinion paper that I informed you I was working on. I'm sending a copy attached to this email with an invitation to Crisis Text Line to review and inform me of any factual errors that it can confirm. I have done my best to verify all facts.

To allow for that review, I'll wait a week before distributing the paper within the organization and to those it has identified as advisors.

Sincerely,

Tim Reiersen
